Standards & Norms

No dead volume

To prevent unfavourable dead volume, both,the female and male thread, can end in a conical connection. This ensures that no bacteria can become lodged, media do not crystallise and dirt particles cannot adhere.